Americans with Disabilities
Act of 1990 (ADA)

The District Attorney's Office does not discriminate against persons with disabilities within the private sector and in state and local governments. It is illegal to retaliate against a person because the person complained about the discrimination, filed a charge or discrimination, or participated in an employment discrimination investigation or lawsuit. The law also requires that employers reasonably accommodate the known physical or mental limitations of an otherwise qualified individual with a disability who is an applicant or employee, unless doing so would impose an undue hardship on the operation of the employer's business.
